PROCEDURAL SIMPLICITY WITHOUT LOSS OF GUARANTEES

The verbal trial, as a channel for these claims, allows an agile and accessible process, even without lawyer or solicitor in lower-amount cases, while keeping procedural guarantees intact.

BROAD RANGE OF EVIDENTIARY MEANS

Despite the procedure's simplicity, all evidence recognized by law is admitted, from documents to witnesses, experts, or recordings, allowing a comprehensive defense.

PROMOTION OF EXTRAJUDICIAL RESOLUTION

The obligation to resort to appropriate dispute resolution methods (MASC) before filing a lawsuit reinforces the importance of having solid evidence from the pre-trial phase.
